A home that brings everyone together, with room to retreat when you need it. At 205 Te Okuroa Drive, family life finds its balance, with beach weekends and Papamoa's cafés, shops and eateries adding plenty to enjoy beyond home.

The kitchen, dining and family area is made for sharing the day. Children can pull up a stool at the island while dinner takes shape, friends can gather for a drink, and there's room around the table for meals that turn into longer conversations. White cabinetry, pendant lighting and plenty of storage create an inviting setting for it all.

Wide sliders connect the family area to the patio, taking barbecues and weekend lunches outdoors. The lawn offers space for play without giving you a large section to look after.

A separate lounge gives everyone more choice. Settle in for a movie, let the children take over with their friends, or enjoy your own evening while the rest of the household carries on nearby.
