YOUR OWN PRIVATE MOUNTAIN SANCTUARY – 200 ACRES OF NATURAL BEAUTY!

A Rare Opportunity to Escape, Unwind and Reconnect with Nature
Tucked away at the very end of the road, where privacy, tranquillity and breathtaking natural beauty come together, this remarkable 81.1-hectare (approximately 200-acre) property offers an extraordinary opportunity to secure your own secluded sanctuary in the heart of the Northern Rivers.
Located approximately 22 kilometres from Kyogle township, this unique holding enjoys an enviable position bordering the spectacular Border Ranges National Park, creating an incredible natural backdrop of rainforest, rugged mountain scenery and abundant native wildlife.
Imagine waking to the sounds of the forest, enjoying spectacular mountain views and spending your days exploring your very own rainforest paradise, complete with a beautiful permanent creek, waterfalls and secluded swimming holes.
This is country living at its most peaceful and private.
A NATURAL WONDERLAND
Positioned approximately 1,000 feet above sea level, the property is nestled within its own picturesque valley, offering exceptional privacy and a wonderful connection with the surrounding landscape.
The property features a beautiful combination of established rainforest, palms, orchids, staghorns, ferns and impressive stands of native eucalypt and hardwood timber, together with pockets of cleared and slashed paddocks.
At the top of Horseshoe Creek, fresh flowing water, waterfalls and inviting swimming holes create an idyllic setting to enjoy the outdoors. Water sourced from the creek, flowing from the Border Ranges National Park, has been independently tested by Southern Cross University laboratories, with results indicating excellent water quality and purity.
There are also attractive cleared camping areas along the creek, providing wonderful spaces for family gatherings, camping and enjoying the natural surrounds.
Nature lovers will appreciate the abundance of native wildlife, with koalas, king parrots and a diverse range of birdlife regularly visiting the property.
