SOLD

Welcome to 11 Slathiel Street, if you are looking for a home that's tastefully updated with no rear neighbours, this is the one.

Featuring a fresh new entertainer's patio big enough to cater for the extended family and perfect for afternoon relaxing whilst listening to the birds and watching the sunset.

- Located on a rare and private 800 square metre block with extended space for the kids to play in the fully-fenced backyard

- Freshly painted inside and out with open plan living flowing through to the new polished concrete rear patio with high ceilings and TV point for game nights

- Updated timber kitchen with 5 burner stove and walk-in pantry

- Centrally located only 11mins to Cairns City centre and 14 mins to the beach

- Close to bike paths, walking tracks, public transport, childcare facilities and a large shopping centre

- Potential for rear access via council easement for your boat, caravan or trailer

With a cottage feel from the front and stylish entertaining out the back, you'll find your friends coming over and hanging out with you a little more often than they did before.
