WHEN OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

26/1 Diura Street is an opportunity to make you own little piece of paradise. This light filled van with hard annex with separate bathroom has real potential.

There is a large kitchen space and dining room with a spacious bedroom in the upper level of the home and a long comfortable living area on the lower level with a full bathroom at the end.

There is an extra long carport that is also used as a great outdoor space and good size garden shed sits at the end of the carport.

You are surrounded by permanent residents and along with great management they have created a happy and stress free place to live.

From a location point of view it doesn't get much better you are minutes from Shops, cafes and medical and the best beaches and waterways the sunshine coast has to offer.

At this price it won't hang around long, don't let this opportunity pass you by
