Local Icon this business has been owned by current owners for 27 years ago

Situated in a high end suburb and with an outstanding reputation for providing a choice of stationary that is rare in this day and age.

This is an Opportunity to own a profitable and solid business with the potential for returning increasing profits in the future.

The area has a fantastic profile and "King William Road" has many benefits over and above the usual shopping precincts.

Throughout the year the business is in the hub of the Tour Down Under, which attracts thousands of spectators and visitors to the area. The annual Adelaide Fashion Festival features King William Road as it's main attraction.

On top of these 2 large events, King William Road is one of the busiest shopping streets outside of Rundle Mall, with it's cafes, boutique shops and unique food outlets, this business is amongst the best Adelaide has to offer.

There is a group called King William Traders Association is an added benefit for you to tap into a world of business knowledge and feedback to grow as a trader.
