RARE RIVERSIDE GEM

Nothing is more soothing than the tranquility of a moving river especially when its the Wooli Wooli River...
If beachside living is not for you but you want to know it is just a few minutes away then read on. This block of land is one of only 2 vacant lots in the street and with its practical shape and generous size of 812 sqm building your home adjacent to the river reserve will be simple. Heavenly sunsets, canoeing, fishing, nature walks and safe summer swims in blue water are at your fingertips. Olen Close is a renowned prestigious residential address in Wooli with underground power and water. Properties are rarely offered for sale so do your drive by, take a walk on the block, take a walk in the river reserve and then call to discuss this genuine opportunity.
