PRIVATE OASIS

Proudly marketed by your local Gympie and district agents Wayne and Christine Fewtrell.

Looking for a private getaway? Or maybe you just value privacy and as a bonus spectacular views, then this property could be the one for you.

62 acres (25.14ha) on 2 freehold titles situated at the end of a picturesque, no through road and approximately 15 minutes from Gympie taking in the south-western slopes of Mt Stratigos.

Undulating to steeper country with rich red soil. Some areas of improved pasture and the balance is timbered with a mix of acacia and native rainforest trees plus a range of fruit trees.

The rustic timber and stone cottage has lovely views and is set in a private position with some solar in place. There is another cottage for a studio, guest accommodation or for storage. Landscaped with stone retaining walls and footbridge.

The property is zoned white on the vegetation map so you can choose what you would like to do regarding the trees on this unique property.

You can enjoy this property on foot using the walking tracks throughout the property or invite a few friends over to ride bikes. If you are into pig or deer hunting you can sometimes find them on the property. Arrange an inspection today.
