INVESTMENT WITH POTENTIAL

Elevated out of flood this east facing home on a 588m² easterly sloping allotment. This 1950's built house has a hardwood timber frame, and hardwood flooring, corrugated iron roof. Although in its original finishes, it has been a rental property where the same tenant has lived for eight years, and would like to remain for at least another 8 years.

High ceilings and internal plastered walls provides potential for a full make-over. There is a rear covered verandah, adjoining the laundry which includes a shower and toilet.

The house is currently being repainted on the outside, and there is a single lockable garage with some storage.
