ARE YOU READY TO FALL IN LOVE?

Be ready to have your breath taken away by this charming Queenslander set amongst $\frac{3}{4}$ of an acre of well-established gardens in a highly sought-after location on Tamborine Mountain. This 1904 relocated Queenslander has been lovingly preserved with many period features, including fretwork, original sash windows, tongue and groove internal linings, hardwood floors, stained glass windows, large eat-in country kitchen with pressed metal cabinets, and a porcelain clawfoot bath to relax in. French doors open onto a wide front verandah where you can sit, watch and listen to the wonderful bird life in the surrounding rainforest whilst taking in your amazing gardens.

This home features generous sized bedrooms as well as multiple large living areas that have a seamless flow giving you plenty of room to entertain or enjoy your own space by the fireplace. Downstairs boasts a large bedroom, sitting area and a second bathroom, ideal for guest accommodation, granny flat or a home business.

Enjoy the benefits of growing a variety of fruit trees, veggies & herbs to provide you with food throughout the year and collecting fresh eggs from your own hens. The property also features solar power, underfloor and ceiling insulation, and bore water access.
