OWN A PART OF BRISBANE HISTORY!

Brimming with charm from yesteryear and filled with potential, this 1900's workers cottage forms a part of Brisbane history. Situated on a huge double block over two titles, the opportunity to invest and reap the rewards so close to the CBD simply can't be passed up.

The historical home sits on an elevated block overlooking Torwood Park and Cafe Auchenflower, and is situated within the Milton State School and the exceptionally popular and well-regarded Kelvin Grove State College catchment areas. The home itself boasts lofty ceilings with exposed rafters, spacious bedrooms including a loft-style adults hideaway with ensuite, and a unique layout that that would suit a large family. Keep warm during winter and bask in the ambience of two working fire places, and cook up a storm in the sizeable, rustic-style kitchen.

With excellent bones, the home could be restored to its original glory with just a little love.

Consider the features:

Five bedrooms, including loft-style retreat upstairs with ensuite
