

96 SMYTHE STREET CORINELLA

FOR SALE

ENDURING CHARM, ENTICING STYLE

The captivating facade of this single level period residence provides an appealing first impression that is matched by the interior that has been comprehensively renovated home to deliver a stunning provincial domain, perfectly situated near Corinella foreshore and walking tracks.

Behind the charming exterior, contemporary themes are highlighted by timber floors and stylish finishes, two bright bedrooms one with built in robe, a stylish bathroom with classic New York black & white style that flows off the master bedroom.

The timber floors extend through an inviting dining area and versatile open plan living, superbly appointed provincial style kitchen, and a retreat bedroom or sunroom opening to an enclosed private deck area.

The home retains the charm of the past while offering a lot for the future and overlooking private romantic gardens of 800m approx.

96 Smythe Street offers extraordinary lifestyle in one of Corinella's most renowned pockets. Daniel & Tamara from @realty Bass Coast have the pleasure of presenting this magnificent property in Corinella.
