PORTER DAVIS LUXURY EX DISPLAY

Blessed with a stunning exterior of designer brickwork, render and timber the street appeal is just the start of what this Porter Davis ex display has to offer. Making the most of the living space a separate living/study area is located at the front of the home for quiet enjoyment. Two bedrooms both with built-in-robies are conveniently situated close to the family bathroom and separate toilet. A brilliant design provides internal access from double garage and an open plan living area with a beautifully appointed and stylish stone benchtop kitchen with built in pantry overlooking the rear entertainment alfresco area. A separate rumpus/TV room at the rear with perfectly landscaped low maintenance backyard seamlessly connecting. Another highlight of this home is the spacious and private master suite with walk in robe and full ensuite which also has its own glass sliding door to the outdoor area. Features include stunning timber flooring and decking, gas ducted heating and evaporative cooling. You will enjoy living opposite parkland amongst other quality display homes in beautiful Highgove Estate. Don't miss this opportunity. Call now for more information!
