FAMILY LIVING

This quaint 1960's cottage on 547m2 has been renovated with attention to detail. A white picket fence offers a delightful street presence adding to the classic cottage charm.

Four double bedrooms are tastefully presented and provide plenty of room to add extra furniture. The master bedroom is spacious incorporating built-in robes and a study nook.

Beautiful polished hardwood floors feature throughout the main living area and are offset by the stylish interior décor. The open plan living area flows seamlessly to the well-appointed kitchen complete with Caesarstone benchtops and quality appliances.

Large sliding doors encourage plenty of natural light and open fully to the generous rear deck surrounded by greenery and provides the perfect place to relax or entertain guests.

The low maintenance back yard offers a sizeable garage, a play area for the kids, a sandpit and veggie a garden to keep the whole family entertained.

Boasting a spacious and practical floor plan, this beautiful old Queenslander will impress families, couples and investors.
