You won't find better than this beautiful home that has just been painted and has new carpet upstairs.

There is lots of space for the whole family to spread out in the open plan kitchen, dining and lounge area.

Alfresco dining has never been easier with this lovely spacious yard. Being an end townhouse you have side access so you can bring the kids bikes and scooters with you.

The third toilet is located of the downstairs lounge for your convenience.

Upstairs boast a huge main room with spacious en-suite and a lovely balcony. There are also another two large rooms all with built in wardrobes and the main bathroom with a bath, shower and toilet.

The complex is beautifully kept and has the largest swimming pool I have seen on the coast along with a gym, tennis court, function room, steam room, sauna and a great BBQ area with table and chairs for that lazy Sunday afternoon with friends.

Save money here because you can forget about having to go to expensive resorts because living here you will feel like you are on holidays everyday and with these superb facilities the kids will love being at home.
