TEMPTING FROM EVERY PERSPECTIVE

Classically 1980s in concept, creation and completion, this home's character reflects its origins while its readiness for renovation, occupy or re-development, STCA, suggests a spectacularly rewarding future.

Substantial bright lounge and a generous kitchen are instantly indicative of the era while the same sense of period identity defines three bedroom accommodation and the similarly styled central bathroom.

Heating, cooling, security alarm and bathroom equipped with spa enhance a design that surrounds itself with generous outdoor space and a huge driveway that emphasizes the scale of the block in a setting renowned for its family friendly access to Laverton P9 college, two train stations, local parks, Skeleton Creek bike paths, Central Square shopping and freeway access. An outstanding opportunity to make the utmost of a location providing exceptional lifestyle appeal – and the prospect of pleasing, reliable investment returns if so desired.
