Ladies and Gentleman, we have something truly special for you today. A lovely perfectly maintained 3 bedroom home sitting on a massive 560m² block. There is literally nothing to do. Just pack your things and move straight in!

The home is in excellent condition. Featuring 2 good sized living areas and with an undercover patio you are sure to be impressed. Situated in a quiet street with local traffic coming through only you will be hard pressed to find anything as nice as this in the area.

Walking in through the front door of the house you will be greeted by the first large living area/formal lounge of the home. Moving on from the first living area into the rest of the home you will then move into the kitchen/second living area/meals area, this space is open plan in its design so that you can be right there with your family and friends as you prepare your meals. The kitchen itself is functional, neat and has plenty of storage space.

This all opens out onto the undercover patio area. Perfect for relaxing undercover in both summer or winter with a hot or cold drink.

The home features 3 good sized bedrooms all with built in robes.

This home is truly something special and is in great condition. The home features solar panels, ducted heating, ducted evaporative cooling, 2 split system air conditioners, floor boards, alarm, 3 garden sheds with electricity, water tanks and remote garage door.
