SUPERBLY RENOVATED FAMILY MASTERPIECE IN BENOWA

Please note this is an over 50's Complex called Paradise Palms Leisure Villas.

Completely renovated throughout to the highest standard with quality finishes and fittings and absolutely nothing left out including extra power points throughout with the demands of today's technology and devices.

Amazing modern, trendy and stylish chef's kitchen with stainless steel appliances, self closing drawers and plenty of storage.
The kitchen has plenty of natural light and leads out to the secure and fully enclosed courtyard which is perfect to sit and relax and read a book and have a cup of coffee.

Single level and open plan the living area and bedrooms have brand new carpet and blinds and there is ducted air which has just been installed throughout.

Two generous sized bedrooms each with built in wardrobes however the second bedroom has been well designed and can also function as an office with well positioned doors that can be closed off to provide privacy.

The bathroom is stunning and is equipped to take care of those with limited mobility with a wide shower entrance and hand rails for peace of mind with stability.

Rare in many units but this quality unit has a separate laundry with ample bench space and cupboard and storage. It can accommodate either a front or top loader with its unique design features. Easy access from the laundry door out to the clothesline located in the side courtyard.

Undercover parking provided which makes it functional and practical. There is also bus service within walking distance.

Central and prime location close to shops, dining and transport and an inspection is a must to truly appreciate all it has to offer.
