FROM $330,000

For the investor or private home buyer.

A rare opportunity to purchase 1 to 10 apartments in the same complex. All are currently let, with excellent rental histories and solid returns. While most of these apartments have been let on long term leases, there is also the opportunity to let them as holiday, or short term corporate rentals. There is a mix of furnished and unfurnished apartments.

These 3 bedroom apartments are within walking distance to the new stadium, the city centre, the Palmer Street dining precinct, and The Strand. They enjoy views of Ross Creek, the Marina and some even have views of Magnetic Island. They are in a prime location, that is always in demand.

If you're looking to purchase your own home, each apartment can be bought separately, get in quick to have your choice of position. This is city living at its best, close to all the action, but away from all the noise. Each apartment has a generous living/dining area that leads to a large north facing balcony, ready to take advantage of year round cooling breezes. There are also split air conditioners throughout, secure parking and onsite management. Relax by the pool, or take advantage of the onsite gymnasium.
