NEAT LITTLE PROPERTY SHED AND LAND- MILLSTREAM

This is an excellent property if you want a couple of acres for your family. An affordable weekender that can be lived in while you build your new house. Because the weekender is a council approved shed you could be eligible for the first home owners grant if you fit into that category. It has one large bedroom, an open plan living /kitchen and shower/toilet. Town water, power and septic system.

A house could be built at the very back of the block, and this would give you some more privacy from the street.

The block is fenced and has two divided paddocks, vast for a miniature pony; it also has a small round yard made form hardwood. There is a well-made dog enclosure with four divisions.

Only 10 minutes from Ravenshoe well worth saving to your favourite folder and of course come to have a look.
