Property Specifications:

From the time you open the door to this apartment you will be drawn to the open space of the living areas and your eyes will be drawn upwards towards the 5.4m void atrium area leading to the rooftop from the internal timber and glass staircase. The morning sun streams through the glass panels down the staircase and reflects onto the walls of the apartment. The view is spectacular day or night from the 50m2 rooftop located on the 5th floor, with wide ocean, beach, skyline, and hinterland views. Enjoy a quiet area to read, entertain with friends or romantic nights with your loved one.

The owners have created multiple indoor and outdoor living and dining areas throughout the apartment, with views from the main living, dining, balcony, kitchen, and the master bedroom. The design is created around open plan living, opening by stacker doors to the undercover balcony.

The kitchen has views towards the beach and the design is complimented with a glass splash back, stone bench tops, island breakfast bar and plantation shutters. There are gas hotplates and Ariston kitchen appliances, an integrated oven, and a microwave.

The master suite is light and airy, wide built-in wardrobes and a private ensuite. The second bedroom has built-ins and is centrally located to the main bathroom. The 3rd bedroom is currently being utilized as a home office, offers built-ins and there is plenty of natural light.

The tones have been carefully chosen offering simple but elegant natural tones with bamboo flooring throughout the apartment.
