KIN KIN VILLAGE LIFE

Want to live a quieter life but still stay close to larger towns and services, then this property is well worth a look.

This 3 bedroom home is unique in floor plan and design. The main bedroom has an attached study/retreat area which accesses a small outdoor area connecting it to the second bedroom and the living area. The third bedroom has leadlight windows and is located off the front deck. There is a modern galley kitchen and bathroom, living room has a high ceiling polished timber floors and wood heater with access to the large front deck. Laundry is located inside opposite the bathroom and linen storage cupboard.

The 802m2 allotment slopes up from the road and there are 2 rainwater tanks.

Walking distance to Kin Kin State School, post office, general store, cafe, hotel, community hall, public tennis courts, sporting field and all Kin Kin has to offer. Well worth an inspection.
