Surrounded by the crystal blue waters of Lake Wallis, this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to secure a massive land parcel on Wallis Island. Whether you're looking for a lakeside retreat to escape to on weekends, or you're searching for a quiet waterfront destination to retire to, this sprawling allotment of level land will deliver the seclusion and tranquillity you seek.

Comprising over 99-acres* of unspoiled land, the property holds dwelling and jetty entitlements and is ready and waiting for you to build your dream home, subject to council and waterway approvals. Take advantage of the north-easterly aspect by capitalising on the stunning views of the nearby towns of Forster and Tuncurry – watch the glow of lights in an evening sparkle from across the lake! The deep waterfront stretches to almost a kilometre* and is lined by established, shady trees to further protect your privacy.

Access to Wallis Island is by air or boat and the property includes access to an airstrip, with a cross strip providing a direct passageway to your property. Fly into your own slice of paradise, or hop in the boat to escape the rat race on weekends. All the splendours of living on the water including fishing and boating are yours to enjoy from your own backyard.

When you require modern day amenities, the townships of Tuncurry and Forster are only a 5-minute boat ride away. Here, you'll find a thriving community brimming with shops, eateries, restaurants, cinemas, medical facilities and professional services. With a small number of inhabitants residing on the island, this land is a rare and unique offering to the market. To be one of the privileged few to live a laidback island lifestyle, call now to request further information or to arrange an onsite inspection.
