STUNNING HOME IN PRIME LOCATION

This modern day, Steel frame, Rockcote rendered home has been completely renovated and is an absolute compliment to the current owners. This home exudes a timeless quality and elegance in both style and design and is located in the beautiful boutique area known as Old Eagle Heights.

Sitting pride of place on this elevated block, the home has a North facing aspect and feels very private due to the beautifully manicured gardens.

No expense has been spared as you are greeted upon entry with Natural stone pillars through the modern day study with large fixed pane windows bringing the outdoor environment in.

Polished porcelain tiles lead you through the open plan kitchen, living and dining area which is the heart of the home. The double french timber doors open out seamlessly to your very own partially fenced private backyard.

Large windows draw in light and breeze and the colour of nature bounces throughout the home. Polished Porcelain tiles, granite benchtops, quality fittings throughout, clean lines and natural tones all compliment each other and will impress the most fastidious buyer.
