CHARMING COUNTRY HOME!

This solid three bedroom home is located in a quiet part of town within walking distance of schools and the business centre. There is an air conditioned open plan living area that also has a wood stove to keep you cosy in the winter. There is a good sized kitchen with plenty of storage. The separate office could easily be converted to another bedroom. The main bathroom has a toilet and there is a second toilet located on the spacious back verandah. The large block (1214sqm) is fenced and has a double lock up garage plus garden sheds to the rear of the property. This well maintained home is definitely worth looking at either to move in and enjoy or to add to your investment portfolio. The home is currently tenanted. Please contact me to arrange a private inspection.
