"THE POPLARS" - DELIGHTFUL ACREAGE LIVING + BORE

"The Poplars" - a delightful 5 acre property- only 1km from the pretty township of Blackbutt Qld.
If you are looking for a private executive brick home in beautiful condition and gorgeous gardens with unlimited bore water then this one is for you. Probably one of the nicest acreage properties I have seen.
The long Poplar lined driveway leads you through another gateway to the circular driveway in front of the steel framed brick home which sits towards the back third of the property.
Around the delightful gardens and paddocks are multiple taps with hoses from the solar powered bore, so you can water to your heart's content.
The home has high ceilings throughout, 3 x-large bedrooms, with the main having a good size ensuite and double walk-in robes.
The large lounge is at the front of the home with adjacent breakfast area and good size kitchen.
There is a formal dining area, a large office, bathroom with shower, bath and toilet combined, and a big laundry which leads to the outside mud room.
Outside the kitchen area is a very large entertainment area.
Car accommodation consists of a double length carport with a roller door at one end of the home, and then there is a powered 6m x6m shed with double roller doors, plus an unpowered 6m x6m shed.
There is 93,000 litres of rainwater storage connected to the home.
The whole property is fenced with dog proof wire. NBN is connected and there is great mobile phone service. There is weekly garbage collection.
Overall, this property is ready to just move into and enjoy. Inspections are by appointment only.
