Be quick to secure this traditional beach house located on the ever popular Anglers Road in the heart of Cape Paterson. Private and mature gardens surround the home on all sides offering peace, serenity & space. Cape Paterson is known for its golden beaches and dramatic coastline and this small seaside town is a favourite among beach goers, surfers and divers and is also a fishing hotspot.

Cape Paterson Bay Beach is famous for the large rock pool, a peaceful place where protected turquoise waters lap gently. The man-made structure was built in the 1960s and is just as popular today; families make a beeline to the inviting rocks on hot days. Be sure to bring your snorkel for a glimpse of underwater life, or bait up and cast a line from the rocky makeshift jetty.

Just around the eastern headland is Cape Paterson Surf Beach. A sandy path takes you from the car park to beach, which is popular for surfers, bathers and those with a penchant for fishing. The beach is patrolled on weekends between December and Easter. Master the waves with a surfing lesson with Salty Seas Surf School, who operate in Cape Paterson and afterwards enjoy some of the best local produce at your new local - The Cape Tavern, Make sure you book!
