GREAT FAMILY HOME

Located opposite natural parkland, this fantastic family home can now be yours. With excellent options for family spaces, for entertaining or a bit of space, this home has it all. With a large theatre room to watch the game or your favourite movies, a massive open plan living area for living and dining leading out to the alfresco area. There is also a kid's activity room off the bedrooms to give them some space to play or study. The kitchen boasts huge bench space, 900mm oven and stainless cooktop, and a butlers pantry for excellent storage. This overlooks the living and alfresco, ideally located for entertaining. The master bedroom is located at the rear of the home and is generous in proportion with a large ensuite with double vanity and WIR. The remaining bedrooms are all excellent sizes and easily cater for double or queen beds all with BIR. A spacious backyard and small workshop are all established and there is easy access down the side of the home for boats or trailers. This home is fantastic value, so be quick and arrange a personal inspection today. The is also a virtual tour available. Contact Jason Gard as Exclusive Agent for more details today.
