88 Wharf St, Maryborough, QLD, 4650

Portside Apartments is steeped in history, if only the walls could talk, it has everything including the tombstone of Fanny and Mary Uhr from the mid-1800's.

It just doesn't get any better than this, enjoy all the charm and grandeur that Maryborough has to offer from this Portside Heritage Precinct Property which without a doubt boasts the best panoramic views of the Mary River.

Offering the best of both worlds, old world charm and the inner-city modern-day convenience this beautiful heritage city has to offer. There are several fantastic local cafes, pubs and restaurants within a stone's throw and minutes' walk to the Brolga Theatre which is home to the free Brolga Live monthly event on Riverstage.

Many of the Fraser Coasts annual events are celebrated right on our doorstep, just recently the Relish Food and Wine Festival, shortly we will be celebrating the Steemfesta and let's not forget the popular Mary Poppins festival which is "Expialidocious" you are literally right in the middle of all the action here.

Wharf Street is the showpiece of this beautiful heritage city with the impressive Bond Store, Maryborough Military and Colonial Museum just a short stroll from Portside Apartments.
