IS THIS YOUR NEXT HOME?

Situated in a quiet side street in a high demand area is where you will find this cute cottage! Walk to the shops, schools and the beach.

This privately appointed home has been beautifully renovated and presents well.

Offering open plan living with 2 king size bedrooms that are all air conditioned; and a large two way modern bathroom that gives you an ensuite off the master, this home wont disappoint. The kitchen offers plenty of cupboards and leads out through the french doors to the rear of the property.

Being fully fenced, this home gives you the privacy you deserve. With a lovely courtyard out the front through to the lovely big yard which has room for a pool.

You will love entertaining out on the back patio while enjoying the beautiful northerly sea breezes and the gorgeous native gardens.

This is a must see property and wont last long!

With a tenant in place till October, 24 hours notice is required for inspections. If you are an investor, don't hesitate as this fabulous tenant would love to stay.

The current owner has relocated inter state and is off loading assets, so she has priced this lovely home to gain a quick sale! Call Juliet today to book your private inspection.
