COTTAGE TALES

Who doesn't love the character and charm the old cottages possess. There is a beauty and warmth that is hard to describe, but can definitely be "felt" when you are inside on older home. This 3 bedroom home is filled with memories, with the faded echoes of voices, drops of laughter, that have ebbed and flowed between the walls over the years.

The reality is that old houses that were built a years ago were built by craftsmen, people who were the best in the world at what they did. Yes it may need some love and care now and yes the years may be showing but the character remains

The little nuances in the woodwork, the framing of the doors, the built-in nooks, the windows—all had been done by hard-working and talented people which makes the house more inviting and attractive.

Head down the outside stair
Where everytime a step creaks,
The sound tells a story.

A hundred summers in their heat,
christmas get togethers and the changing of seasons.

A bare backyard is inviting you to plant hundreds of bulbs and scented rose bushes, a white picket fence would be the icing on the cake.

A hundred years of living,
These walls have seen each day.

This house can be your home
and a new tale can begin.
