TIMELESS ELEGANCE

You will be proud to call this classic Murwillumbah home your own. From the moment you wander up the private elevated driveway to the expansive undercover front deck where you can relax with a cuppa in the morning or a soothing afternoon beverage after work you will be mesmerised by the glorious ever-changing views across the framed paddocks below to the border ranges and beyond.
The home itself is meticulously maintained and styled in keeping with the period and imbues a sense of peace and serenity. It's simply classic, timeless, elegance. The private tiered back yard is festooned with coloured low maintenance garden beds leading you up the stone path where you can relax in a soothing spa overlooking your new world below. Search a little further and you can wander out the back gate and over the hill to the township of Murwillumbah and its treats of well stocked eateries and arts culture.
The home also boasts a spacious downstairs self-contained teenagers retreat which offers a multitude of uses.
Don't miss this one. Homes of this period and class don't last long in this market.
