Ladies and Gentleman, we have something special for you today. A beautiful large family home in a great part of Hallam. Located only a few minutes walk to Fountain Gate primary school and secondary school and only a short distance to the Fountain Gate shopping centre as well as bus stops on your door step this well maintained home is sure to impress!

As with any property its all about LOCATION, LOCATION and LOCATION and this home does not disappoint. Everything is on your door step. You will love it.

The home features 3 great sized bedrooms the master with walk in robe and ensuite and 2 good sized living areas! This property ticks ALL the boxes. There is absolutely nothing to spend. Simply pack your things and move straight in! Quality properties like this one in Hallam are only on the market for days before they are quickly snapped up by savvy buyers.

Walking in through the front door of the home and to the left you are first presented with the master bedroom. The master is ample in size and features more than enough room for your king sized bed and bed side tables. The master features an ensuite with a walk in robe.

Walking further into the home you have the first living area. Large in size and with more than enough room for 2 large couches, TV, coffee table etc. This is a great place to relax.

Flowing on from this first living area is the second living area/family meals area, this area has plenty of room for a large dining table. This area is overlooked by the kitchen which features oven, range hood, and cook top, the kitchen is in great condition and over looks the living area/family meals area which means you can be right there in the action with your family and
