6-8 CASCADES DRIVE, REDLYNCH, QLD, 4870

SOLD

UNDER CONTRACT

If you're looking for your own private haven, surrounded by rainforest and nature, then this is the one!

Start unwinding from the very moment you begin your journey home, the short drive into Redlynch Valley is surrounded by lush tropical greenery, native flora and small winding creeks all to help you untether from the daily stresses whilst delivering you to your home amongst the treetops.

This European inspired pole home features cathedral ceilings, exposed beams, stunning timber flooring and a handcrafted verandah that blends seamlessly into your natural surroundings.

The 2.5 acre block provides a combination of flat useable land and gentle slopes an ideal setting for vegetable gardens, fruit trees and plenty of room for chickens and large pets, maybe even a goat or horse.

The addition of a self-contained granny flat allows the extended family the option to stay a little longer or a welcome retreat for the teenager. Featuring its own kitchen, bathroom and laundry you might find your parents may never want to leave.

The 7mx10m two bay shed was built for the biggest of toys. Complete with power and workbench, like the previous owner, you'll find plenty of projects to start and there will always be room for one more.

The rest of the land provides a scenic rainforest backdrop a true paradise for kids to grow up and learn in. With more and more people gravitating towards the self-sufficient lifestyle this unique property and location create the perfect place to start.

Timeless features like the old 'outback' Tavern, stained glass doors and wood finishes make this a true "home is where the heart is" type of property.

- Elevated to allow for cool breezes to flow throughout on warm tropical evenings
- Abundant wildlife, visits from native birds and wallabies all year round
- Self-contained studio for long term guests and teenagers
- 7m x 10m powered shed, for big toys with a large workbench
