You'll fall in love the moment you step foot onto the balcony to the expansive views of the City lights. Where you will slowly begin to visualise all the ways that you could bring this original Danny Obersky designed home into its next chapter of life.

With an elevated stance, high ceilings and wooden louvres throughout to capture the cool breeze and allow for ventilation, this property perfectly encapsulates the essence of living in Tropical North Queensland.

With so much untapped value, in a highly sought after blue chip location and surrounded by beautiful homes; this is a unique opportunity for the right buyer who possesses the motivation to bring to light the full potential of this wonderful property.
