This architecturally designed beach house is located in a premium location at Tangalooma!
It sits in a quiet culd e sac with only one house next to it and national park on the other. Located in the highest spot in the resort, you will enjoy the peace and seclusion and still be a couple of minutes by buggy to the hub of the resort.
Giving you beautiful sea breezes and views forever this is a must see property!
Situated away from the other houses, you will be in awe with the amazing views that you will endure across the beautiful bay.
As with all the Tangalooma properties this beautiful home comes fully furnished and self contained and is solidly booked giving you an immediate income stream.

The lower level of the house offers a large double garage, bathroom, laundry, kitchenette and living room with trundle beds. There is also an amazing balcony with beautiful views.

The first floor offers 4 King size bedrooms and three bathrooms. Two of the bedrooms lead out onto a large balcony with the most amazing views and offer en suites. All the bedrooms have built in robes and fans.

The top floor gives you a massive open plan living, dining and kitchen. There are water views and views across the national park from every aspect of this floor. With a massive deck overlooking the water and beyond and a deck overlooking the national park, there is plenty of space to sit back and relax.

This fabulous home was strategically built so you can fit a pool down the side.

As this home forms part of the resort you have full use of the pools, tennis court, bars, restaurants, beach etc.
The owners of this beautiful home are clearing assets and will consider offers. Call Juliet today to discuss how to make this your next investment or your forever home!
