Welcome to 44 Kassulke Road South Nanango Qld.

Once you enter the property via the long concrete driveway, you are presented with a two bedroom stone cottage with loads of character. The land is just over 6 acres with a large cleared area around the home, and the remainder is natural bushland with two dams.

As well as the stone cottage there are several very old rustic out buildings, plus a 6m x 6m fully lined, sound proof shed with adjoining car port and also a large very high truck or caravan port beside the home.

If you like quaint and quirky, then this is worth an inspection. There are renovations needed in some areas, but basically the cottage is very liveable as is.

Some of the features are:

*High ceilings with exposed beams in the living area.

*Loft with a spiral staircase

*Brick fireplace

*Gas hot water and cooking. Dishwasher

*4.6kw of Solar Power

*NBN connected; Good mobile phone service.

*Good supply of tank water- 80,000 Litres

This is a very pretty setting, with lots of potential for the new buyers.

Kassulke Road is a quiet no through road with weekly garbage collection, daily mail and school bus at the corner.
