Ladies and Gentleman, we have something special for you today. A beautiful large family home in a great part of Hallam. Located only a few minutes to Fountain Gate primary school and secondary school and only a short distance to the Fountain Gate shopping centre as well as bus stops on your door step this well maintained home is sure to impress!

As with any property it's all about LOCATION, LOCATION and LOCATION and this home does not disappoint. Everything is on your door step. You will love it.

The home features 4 great sized bedrooms the master with walk in robe and ensuite and 3 good sized living areas! This property ticks ALL the boxes. There is absolutely nothing to spend. Simply pack your things and move straight in! Quality properties like this one in Hallam are only on the market for days before they are quickly snapped up by savvy buyers.

This gorgeous home sits on a massive 651m2 block of land!

Walking in through the front door of the home and to the right you are first presented with the master bedroom. The master is ample in size and features more than enough room for your king sized bed and bed side tables. The master features an ensuite with a walk in robe.

To the left of the front door you have the first living area which is currently set up as a formal lounge. This area is large in size and has more than enough room for 2 large couches, TV, coffee table etc. This is a great place to relax. Immediately next to the first living area there is the formal dining room area of the home, there is plenty of room in this spot for a large dining table.
