Proudly set in a secluded locale at the edge of Redlynch Valley, this property emanates exclusivity with privacy to match. With no rear neighbours and backing onto natural rainforest that encases Freshwater Creek, you'll feel like home truly is your own tropical retreat.

The well appointed kitchen is the crux of the home and is perfectly positioned alongside dual living spaces that flow seamlessly onto a spacious entertaining area. Creating a tranquil setting to enjoy meals surrounded by the sounds and sights of nature.

Your new home boasts beautiful gardens with direct access to the council maintained nature reserve behind. Whether it be walking the dog, simply taking in the picture perfect views, the direct access to Freshwater Creek, or allowing the kids to play on their own patch of lush green rainforest, you'll truly feel like this property extends beyond the boundaries- without the extra mowing!

- Well appointed kitchen with plenty of bench space and an ambient wine fridge
- Two-way main bathroom, perfect for guests or teenagers
- Desk in the front bedroom, perfect for growing minds and studying teenagers
- Inbuilt ironing board and iron for easy, hidden access
- Tropical pool with rainforest views and waterfall feature
- Elevated deck for heightened entertaining with breathtaking views
- Corner block that backs onto reserve, which means only one neighbour and added privacy
- 6.5KW solar system installed for energy saving
- Very private setting without being too far out of suburbia
- Direct access to Freshwater creek for swimming and cooling off
- Walking distance to Gambera Park with fenced dog park
- Close to bike tracks, walking tracks and multiple swimming holes
