BEACHSIDE LAND IN BURRUM HEADS

930m2 block backing on to nature reserve.

This block is a real gem, it has an access walkway along the Eastern boundary, and it's about a 5 minute walk to onto the white sands of Serenia Beach.

All town services in the street, and just a short drive from boat ramps, shops and pub in town. Burrum Heads is one of the last remaining locations where there is residential land available so close to the beach.

Old style Queensland coastal villages rarely exist like this anymore, so you can build yourself a brand new home (without restrictive development covenants) and enjoy the laid back beach lifestyle for yourself.

Call me today to secure this for yourself - these properties sell fast!
