DIVINE OPPORTUNITY!

This unique property is ready to enter its next phase.
Located on the main road into Morgan (South Australia's most famous and recognised River Town) this property was once a place of worship, weddings and a meeting place for friends to gather.
The building is sound, and with a little imagination and elbow grease could be converted into whatever you desire. A home for a family or families to occupy, a holiday get away or as a place to retire too. You could use this property as a means of escaping the Metropolitan crush and establish as a dual purpose property, a home with money earner attached. There is potential to establish a home by converting one of the buildings to a Homette while utilising the other for operation of a small business such as a coffee shop, craft store, Meeting Hall, Yoga or Pilates studio.
