This large two storey solid brick home has fantastic street appeal and is positioned on 2 1/2 useable acres in the much sought after Riemore Estate.

The spacious, very well presented home offers multiple living and dining options, as well as various outdoor entertaining areas, making this home the perfect place for entertaining your family and friends.

If you are wanting to escape the fast pace of the city and move to country living, where you can grow your own fruit and vegies, collect eggs from the duck and chicken pen, then this could be your dream home.

The entrance foyer shows off the lovely Chandelier and welcomes you to the ground floor offering multiple living, dining and entertaining space, an office, a 5th bedroom and bathroom, and of course the kitchen that looks over the rear yard.

The timber staircase leads you to the top level of the home where you will find additional living space,

3 family bedrooms and the master bedroom complete with an ensuite, large soaking tub, walk in robe and a private balcony from where you can enjoy the stunning sunsets.

As this is one of the larger blocks in Riemore, there is plenty of room for a pony in the back paddock.

Ideally located just an hour to Brisbane and the Gold Coast this fully fenced property offers a relaxing lifestyle with plenty of space for the kids and animals to run around and play.

The local services including the post office, doctors, pharmacy, produce store, petrol station and the Tamborine Pony Club are all less than a 5 minute drive away.
