LARGE ALLOTMENT IN THE COASTAL VILLAGE OF SCEALE BAY "INCOMPLETE BUILDING PROJECT"

What a great project for the right person to make their own! This property is located in the popular seaside village of Sceale Bay, on South Australia's stunning Eyre Peninsula.

The current owners have carried out most of the hard work, and now due to unforeseen circumstances are offering the property for sale. The plans have been drawn, the slab is down, power, plumbing and enviro septic are in. Building materials to complete construction are currently sitting in Adelaide (refer agent for details).

The property also has a large shed with separate carport, and 6 x 23,500L rainwater tanks are hooked up to an electric pump.

This project now needs someone to finish it off.

Features include:

- DAP done

- Sceale Bay is just 20 minutes to Streaky Bay
- 1 minute to the boatramp and beach
- Great fishing and lifestyle
