BUILD NOW OR LANDBANK IN SORT AFTER LOCATION

Cockburn Road is full of business who will draw people to you. With a funeral parlour just up the road and with the passing traffic you will be noticed on this site. Lot 2 is at the front and is build ready with all services available and even some minor retaining done for you. Enough land area to construct something for yourself as a base for your business and a second space of equal size to rent out.

Its a cliché I know, but this is a rare plot of Light Industry land which gets harder and harder to find year on year. Even if you not ready just yet to build, buy now and have it locked away for when you are.
