SOLD

RIVER STREET - NATURAL PRIVATE RETREAT

Designed by Robert Herriot Architect's of Bendigo, this residence is a tribute to exciting architecture and interiors. Featuring an extensive use of glass, timber and raw brick to create a mood of total relaxation and seclusion, all within a stone throw of the Edward River.

With five bedrooms, two bathrooms, numerous living areas and double lockup garage, this multi-level home extends out into a magnificent half acre of well-established and thoughtfully landscaped garden.

A combined dream of both Architect and only owners, every inch of this trophy home hosts bespoke design and enduring quality, right down to the timeless kitchen, with all new appliances, including ceramic cooktop.

Ducted reverse cycle heating and cooling, combined with a slow combustion wood fire, ensure the home remains comfortable all year round.

Timeless design, uncompromising privacy and impeccable quality make this truly a once in a lifetime opportunity.
