What an opportunity! This spacious two story five-bedroom home is a real gem, a wonderful family home just waiting for the finishing touches.

All the elements are in place, all you need to do is put your own stamp on it!

First impressions always count, and this property makes a statement upfront with an elegant art deco porch, leading into a formal entry flooded by light from the elaborate decorative window, and complimented by the formal lounge/dining, study or fifth bedroom.

With four more well-sized bedrooms, including master with en-suite, a family bathroom and separate toilet, large laundry and light-filled kitchen/family room leading to the grassed back yard, is full of potential and a chance to express your creativity and turn this home into something truly impressive.

Set on approx 789m2 in a fantastic location, this large family home will suit first home buyers or investors looking for their start in the property market or add to their portfolio. With schools and parks nearby, public transport and only minutes from shopping centers and the M1, this property is guaranteed to impress and boasts benefits to suit the entire family.
