This spacious 5 bedroom family home is grand in proportions over two vast levels of interconnected living spaces and designed for large-scale entertaining with open plan living. A well-appointed kitchen with ample cupboards and bench space promises effortless entertaining and a superior lifestyle suited to both families and professional couples alike.

The upstairs features a large master with dual access walk in robe and ensuite and along with bedroom 2 it opens out onto the massive astro turfed balcony designed as your own private space and tranquility. Two additional bedrooms with built-in-robos and the family bathroom share this level all leading off the open plan study/rumpus zone which provides a place to come together.

The ground floor bedroom extends itself to dual living family accommodation, with an oversize bedroom and ensuite bathroom. On this level is also a combination of 4 open plan and formal living areas all leading off the kitchen as well as the family laundry and separate toilet.

Features:

- . Sun drenched indoor/outdoor continuity creates entertaining areas through the house
- . Large family home with potential for dual accommodation that a growing family will appreciate
- . Combination of 4 open plan and formal living areas;
- . Downstairs oversize bedroom with own ensuite:
