FAMILY-SIZED LIVING IN A CONTEMPORARY FREEHOLD HAVEN

Superbly positioned to enjoy the very best of the iconic bayside lifestyle from a hushed cul-de-sac just a few minutes' drive to the widely celebrated waterfront attractions along the Esplanade, this gorgeous freehold home is destined to impress. Offered to the market for the first time since it was built only 6 years ago, it presents an exceptional alternative to a house purchase, free from the hassle of body corp fees and promising absolutely no compromise on space, attractive style and the practicality of relaxed, low-maintenance living.

Unfolding over a generous 225m² footprint spanning two intelligently designed levels, this stunning abode makes an inviting first impression with its sleek contemporary facade and a private open air-courtyard that welcomes guests into the home. Sharing only one wall, the bright and breezy open plan layout presents an inspiring unison of indoor and outdoor living with sliding doors that seamlessly connect the spacious lounge, dining and kitchen with alfresco entertaining. Grand proportions continue upstairs with three generously appointed bedrooms in carpeted comfort, including the larger-than-life master bedroom which features a sizeable mirrored built-in and ensuite. Adding an extra dimension of liveability for modern families at any stage in life, a full family bathroom on the upper level features a separate bath tub and shower, whilst a purpose-built study nook provides plenty of individual space to work or study from home.

Beautifully located for a laid-back lifestyle like no other, this address has something for everyone. Bordering leafy parkland, this enviable address is walking distance to quality education and childcare, as well as dining and shopping at Wondall Road Village. Only a short drive from major retailers at Wynnum Plaza, this position is moments to Manly's popular waterfront dining and entertainment precinct with playgrounds, public pools, enticing restaurants, cafes and Jan Powers Farmer's markets.
