LOT 3 OLD ESK NORTH ROAD, NANANGO, QLD, 4615

SOLD

GLORIOUS 26.6 ACRES WITH A BORE

Welcome to Lot 3 Old Esk North Road Nanango Qld. This would have to be the nicest rural residential block of land I have ever seen. And so close to town.
Dappled with mature Ironbark and Gum trees, fully fenced in new 4 strand barb wire, and the most important thing of all…. a wonderful solar powered bore with beautiful water quality.
The solar powered bore pumps to a trough at the front of the block and there is underground piping all the way to the rear of block where a bore outlet tap is located.
Rear of the block backs onto a large cattle property
There is a seasonal creek located on the northern side. Pasture is Rhodes grass and natural grasses.
Dimensions of the land are:
Front boundary – 207.47 metres
Side boundary – north – 473.34 metres
Side boundary – south -507.67 metres
Rear boundary – 233.95 metres
The land has been beautifully looked after so you won't find weeds and regrowth or lantana.
Multiple house sites depending on your preference
3 phase power at the front of the block. Daily mail and weekly garbage collection available
The entrance is set well back from the road allowing for large vehicles/trucks etc to pull in safely.
This new subdivision is part of a very large cattle property and is only offering one block for sale at the moment so don't hesitate to book your inspection. Ph Kylie Toole @Realty on 0409 623 473
