HONEY GEM COTTAGE

This charming Mountain Cottage with covered verandas and a spacious back deck, offers a lovely rainforest setting providing the perfect backdrop to relax and unwind, and listen to the local birdlife.

Built of Western Red Cedar and surrounded by nature, this two bedroom cottage would be perfect for a couple, a young family or as a weekender.

The entry level is the main living area of this home consisting of 2 bedrooms and a bathroom, whilst downstairs has another spacious room with its own private entrance and would make an ideal studio, home office, gym, or extra bedroom.

This home also has a lock up garage underneath, along with a work shop area.

With a fresh coat of paint and a couple of minor improvements you would be able to put your own touch on this great home and really make it your own.
