For more detailed information visit the dedicated property website at 23ullathornes.com

Maintaining an attractive street presence with its contemporary design adding to the streetscape, this property is very private and offers excellent family accommodation. The extremely versatile floor plan offers three generous bedrooms, a master with ensuite and walk-in robe, and two living areas with great division between the private and social spaces.

There is a formal lounge separate from the open plan family living area which features a well-appointed central kitchen with an island bench top and links beautifully out to an undercover entertaining area that opens up to the garden. The home is well constructed and in excellent order. Another plus feature is the great backyard, ideal for children and the family to play and offers excellent space for relaxing and entertaining.

Accommodation for two vehicles is provided in the double remote garage together with roller door access through the garage for trailers or small boats. The home is ideal for a permanent residence, holiday home or investment property.
